was [illegible] Lands. Since 25 years. Applied for patta of lands between Deposited money into the treasury. Patta rejected.

The same strip of land was assigned to a political Sufferer. On the appeal preferred by Siraramappa, the present occupier of the land, the grant to the political Sufferer was Cancelled.

The Authorities fixed a market value for the piece of land & the petitioner agreed to have the land at that rate.

The Board of Revenue subsequently passes order to sell the land in public Auction. If so the applicant would be hard hit. He has already spent considerably on the land It is unreasonable to deprive him of the land

The said Siraramappa has preferred appeal to the Govt. to grant the land to him the market value fixed by the Authorities

Favourable orders requested.
